

FORGOT HIS JERSEY MARRIAGE

Bachman's Admission Wins Decree for Three Months' Rente.

Martin W. Bachman was called before Supreme Court Justice Oberholser yesterday as a witness in a suit brought by Mrs. Ethel A. Barham, his bride of less than three months, to annul her marriage because he had another wife living. Bachman admitted that he married Mary Clinton in New Jersey in April 1911 and said she was still his wife when he wedded Ethel A. Bryer on February 18 last. This was one of those marriages that take place in New Jersey, and I forgot all about it," said Bachman.

The court said he would grant a decree.
